INITIATION

Who can forget the Seniors being encouraged to eat pie; the fun of making the pies; the teachers eating crackers; hearing "Five Foot Two"; the poems and the papers praising the Seniors; the lifesaver passing contest, and the forlorn-looking Freshmen all the rest of that memorable day.

CADET TEACHERS

Cadet Teaching is an elective course for Seniors of B.H.S.

Its purpose is to acquaint interested young people in the teaching profession.

Students are assigned to observe and work with one teacher for a full year.

Miss Volk and Donna Hooten prepare a lesson for their class.

CLASS HISTORY

Looking back on our four-year sojourn in B.H.S., we recall as Freshmen that we held our first meeting in September, 1953 and chose the following officers: President, Don Lightner; Vice President, John Hegwood; Secretary, Sue Timmerman; Treasurer, Bernie Stock.

Miss Wonning and Mr. McConnell were our sponsors this year.

Our sophomore year of 1954–56 found these students gone: Raymond Schebler, Irene Schath, Dennis Dirkhising, Paul Hartman, and Robert Lecher.

Although we regretted losing them, new friends were found in Nomi Fields, Mary Werner, Marceda Wallpe, Audrey Wallpe, Jean Schene, Alice Effinger, and Don Voegele.

Our class officers for 1955 were: President, Don Lightner; Vice President, Richard Moeller; Secretary & Treasurer, John Hegwood.

Sponsors were Mr. Bigham and Miss Prentice.

This was the year we chose Sherry Yorn and Jean Saunders as our football attendants for Homecoming.

In September, 1955, all of us returned except Nancy Todd, Don Ledbetter, Kathy Decker, Leo Muckerheide, Edwin Kirschner, and Joyce Schutte.

This year Ray Grassman, James Kruthaupt, and Jim Barry joined one of the best classes B.H.S. has ever produced.

The class officers elected were: President,, Jean Saunders; Vice President, Audrey Wallpe; Secretary, Ruth Moeller; Treasurer, Dick Fichtner.

Doubtless', we all remember Dec. 7, 1955 as the night we presented our Junior play, "Clementine."

The girls elected as our Junior attendants for Football Homecoming were Dolores Ziegler and Ruth Moeller.

On May 18, 1956, the Juniors and Seniors went to visit "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs", our unforgetable Junior-Senior Prom.

In our Senior year, we were all sorry to lose Patti McDaniel, John Dietz, Alice Effinger, and Eddie Lehman.

Jean Saunders and Audrey served as Senior attendants to Ruth Moeller, our Football Homecoming Queen. (Be sure to see her picture on page 21)

The coming of Spring saw the successful presentation of our Senior play, "Rest Assured."

All too soon, it was May. And Graduation brought to an end four of the happiest years of our lives.

A DAY IN

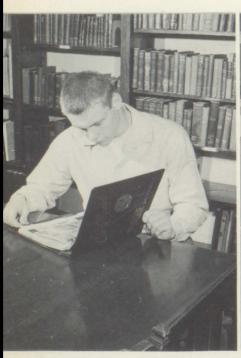

7:30 A.M. John Hegwood starts his day with a shave.

8:20 A.M. John almost forgot his book. Mother's on the job though.

8:30 A.M. Here we go again!

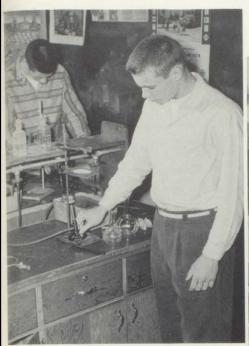

1:15 P.M. John checks the Purdue Guidance Manual for help in choosing a college.

3:00 P.M. Mr. Frushour looks over the permanent record card just to be sure John has all the college entrance requirements.

THE LIFE OF A SENIOR

9:00 A.M. Hegwood and Witters, master chemists, are on the brink of an exciting chemical discovery.

10:15 A.M. Nomi and Colleen seem impressed with John's know-ledge of U.S. foreign policy.

11:30 A.M. Here's a friendly touch. John helps freshman, Kenny Wehr, with an assignment.

4:30 P.M. Classes are over. John and Jerry discuss sports over Cokes at one of the local hangouts.

9:00 P.M. Day is done. John retreats to his basement den to prepare for tomorrow.

OUR TEAM IN ACTION

The 1956-57 Bulldogs ended the season with a 11 win-7 loss record, losing the first 4, winning the next 7, losing the following 3, and winning the remaining 4. The Bulldogs wound up in third place in the Eastern Indiana Athletic Conference with a 2-2 record in Conference play.

We moved to the Sectional Championship game after downing Osgood 51-36 and Milan 55-44, but lost to the Versailles Lions 61-43.

JOHN WITTERS--Johnny is a rough, dependable rebounder and a high scorer.

WAYNE WEHR--Because of his ease of play and ability to move, he is known as "Goose".

PETE DOYLE--Pete is known for his fireball spirit and drive tactics.

SENIOR PLAYERS

BOB BERGMAN--Being tough on reversing under the basket, as well as his overall ability, made him a good all-round player.

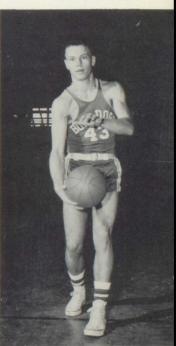

DICK FICHTNER--Dick is well known for his brilliant one-hand jumpshot and great scoring ability.

DON LIGHTNER--"Lightning" is known for flashy speed and tremendous drive.

JOHN HEGWOOD--John's overall team spirit and inspired play have made him an outstanding player.
